PECB BEYOND RECOGNITION

PECB ISO 37001 Foundation

Accredited by ANAB

Gain a clause-by-clause understanding of ISO 37001 requirements for an anti-bribery management system (ABMS).

Why should you attend?

This training course is designed to help participants understand the fundamental concepts, principles, and requirements of an anti-bribery management system (ABMS) based on ISO 37001:2025.

Participants will explore how risk assessments and due diligence support the identification and mitigation of bribery risks, and how both financial and non-financial controls contribute to the overall effectiveness of the ABMS. The course also covers essential practices such as ongoing monitoring, internal audits, reporting mechanisms, and continual improvement efforts to sustain long-term compliance.

Additionally, this course highlights the key changes in the 2025 edition of the standard. These include the integration of climate change considerations into bribery risk assessments, increased emphasis on fostering a strong compliance culture, clarification of the scope and responsibilities of the anti-bribery function, and the introduction of specific references to conflicts of interest.

Who should attend?

This training course is intended for:

- Managers and consultants wishing to get acquainted with the basic concepts and principles of anti-bribery management
- Managers responsible for practicing due diligence with regard to bribery risks
- Individuals wishing to contribute in maintaining the organizational integrity by supporting ethical behavior
- Managers and members of governance, risk management, and compliance teams
- Individuals aspiring to become anti-bribery consultants

Learning objectives

By the end of this training course, participants will be able to:

- Describe the anti-bribery management concepts and principles
- Explain the main ISO 37001 requirements for an anti-bribery management system
- Identify potential actions and approaches that organizations can use to achieve conformity to ISO 37001

Course agenda

DURATION: 2 DAYS

Examination

DURATION: 1 HOUR

- The "PECB ISO 37001 Foundation" exam fully meets all the PECB Examination and Certification Program (ECP) requirements. It covers the following competency domains:
- Domain 1: Fundamental principles and concepts of an anti-bribery management system (ABMS)
- Domain 2: ISO 37001 requirements for an ABMS

For specific information about exam type, languages available, and other details, please visit the List of PECB Exams and the Examination Rules and Policies.

Certificate requirements

First, a candidate must complete the PECB ISO 37001 Foundation training course. Then, they must successfully complete and pass the exam to be able to apply for the "PECB Certificate Holder in ISO 37001 Foundation" certificate.

This is an entry-level credential, and there are no prerequisites for professional or management system project experience. Thus, completing the training course, passing the exam, and applying for the certificate are the only certificate program requisites that certificate holders must meet before obtaining the certificate.

For more information, please refer to the Certification Rules and Policies.
